

Norfolk Schools Cross Country Selection Policy

Athletes are expected to compete in both the Norfolk Schools championships and the Anglian School event. Selection for the English Schools championships will be largely based on the results of both the Norfolk Schools and Anglian School events.

Exceptional circumstances for missing either of these events can be taken into consideration. These include illness, injury, mock exams and a clash with a higher level event on the same day as the Anglian Schools event.